

ORDER OF REVIEW AND PUBLICATION
IN THE INTERNATIONAL COLLECTION OF SCIENTIFIC PROCEEDINGS
"MARKET OF TRANSPORT SERVICES (PROBLEMS OF INCREASING EFFICIENCY)"

Incoming manuscripts of scientific articles are registered, undergo an initial examination and verification by the Anti-Plagiarism system and are subject to review.

The initial examination is carried out by the executive secretary. During the initial examination, accompanying documents are considered, the compliance of the scientific article with the profile of the collection, the design rules and requirements established by the edition of the collection are evaluated. The manuscript is checked for borrowings using the Anti-Plagiarism system.

In accordance with the manuscript of a scientific article, the profile of the collection, the established rules and requirements, it is accepted by the editorial staff and sent for review. If it does not match, then the article is rejected without further review.

Manuscripts are reviewed by independent experts. The reviewer is appointed by the editor-in-chief (deputy editor-in-chief) of the collection of members of the editorial board or with the participation of leading specialists in the field of peer-reviewed materials of the Republic of Belarus and the CIS countries with a degree.

Reviewers submit a review to the editorial office, which should reflect the relevance of the studies performed, the completeness and reliability of the information provided, the degree of novelty of the results, their scientific and practical significance, economic and social value, as well as reasonable conclusions about the article as a whole, comments (brought to the attention of authors to finalize the manuscript).

After receiving the positive opinion of the reviewers, the final decision on the advisability of publication is made by the editorial board. In case of disagreement with the opinion of reviewers, the author has the right to provide a reasoned answer, which will be considered by the editorial board.

After the editorial board makes a decision on the admission of the article for publication, the executive secretary informs the author about this and indicates the date of publication. In case of refusal to publish an article, the editorial office sends a motivated refusal to the author.
